HILLSBORO MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO MARIJUANA CULTIVATION

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – United States Attorney Tom Colantuono, Drug Enforcement Administration Resident Agent in Charge Leo Ducey, Hillsboro Police Chief Robert B. Stafford, Jr. and N.H. Fish and Game Director Lee Perry announced that Steven D. Kidder, age 47, of Hillsboro, New Hampshire pled guilty today in U.S. District Court in connection with the cultivation of a marijuana field in Hillsboro, New Hampshire in August, 2002. Kidder admitted his guilt to the charge during a hearing before U. S. District Judge Joseph A. DiClerico, Jr. He was released pending a sentencing hearing which is scheduled for January 14, 2004.

United States Attorney Colantuono stated, "Crimes such as this, impact communities and place costs on society. One of the highest priorities of the United States Attorney's Office is to continue to seek ways to prevent and reduce crime through the aggressive prosecution of these cases. This case is just one example of our continued dedication to that mission."

The successful prosecution of this case resulted from the efforts of the Hillsboro Police Department, the Drug Enforcement Administration and the N.H. Fish and Game Department. This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Robert J. Veiga.
